January 24, 1849. PATENT CORPSE PRESERVER. BIHE attention of the public is respectfully invited to this newly invented apparatus. The object for which it is intended is perfectly to preserve corpes from decay for any length of time, without being any wise offensive to delicacy, or unseemly in apcarance. The value of such a machine cannot be estimated but by those tender feelings which long for the preservation of a departed friend; and among those who have been compelled to use on account of the fast decaying of their friends, a general and pleasing satisfaction has been given; for none can speak too highof such an important and useful invention. Benevolent institutions and all others who desire to delay funerals until the arrival of distant relatives, or to make suitable preparation for interment, can, by use of this machine, preserve them for weeks in a perfectly inoffensive state, allowing all to gaze upon them. The undersigned has secured the patent for Marion county of this valuable and much needed apparatus. It can be used in the est room in the house without the least inconvenience, and if it does not give satisfaction, no charge will be made.
